Verification Of Coverage

Verification of coverage is not a guarantee of benefits. Actual plan coverage and benefit payments are determined when a claim is received.

Referral submission does not guarantee payment of service. If you are provided services without an appropriate referral/authorization or continuity of care, understand that the claim may be denied for payment.

Continuity of care is a treatment plan that has been established by your physician and your insurance company, any change of treatment plan whether shortened or extended must be done and acknowledged by both your physician and insurance company.

Please note:

Having all of the required information as requested by your insurance company, does not guarantee payment of service. Which will then hold you (the patient) liable.
